Stage 1: Online Module

Strengthening Your Identity for Effective Personal Leadership

To become a great leader in the legal profession, you need to work on the way you see yourself and your ability to present your authentic self to others. Your performance is what you do but your identity is who you believe you are.

The core of all leadership is the 'person' who is becoming the leader. The first step we will take together is to identify and remove the roadblocks that will stop you from being effective at selfleadership, and leading others.

In this online training workshop, we will look at the foundational mindsets and behaviours you need to develop, so you can become who you need to be to achieve the influence, income, and impact you desire from your career in law.

- · Learn how to let go of past mistakes and failures
- · Eliminate your limiting and false beliefs
- Escape the performance trap and approval addiction
- · Rewire your brain with more empowering self-talk
- Learn to set healthy boundaries for yourself and others

To walk away from the webinar ready to get the most out of the Leadership Training Day, you will receive some powerful resources to go through.
